
Segments show the deviation from the scenario mean per attribute, not the absolute contribution (mean over all 12 scenarios, per region).
Their sum is U − mean(U); the diamond marks this sum and is read as true total utility on the top axis. Scenarios sorted by national utility (highest at top).
Absolute contributions incl. constant terms: see Fig. A1.